EXECUTIVE PROFILE : MS PUMELA NGONYAMA

Ms Pumela Ngonyama is an accomplished legal practitioner, governance specialist and strategic leader with more than 25 years of experience across the public sector, corporate governance, legal practice, traditional leadership and board oversight. An admitted Attorney of the High Court of South Africa, she is currently pursuing a Master of Laws (LLM) in Human Rights at the University of South Africa (UNISA), reflecting her continued commitment to professional excellence and the advancement of justice.

Ms Ngonyama possesses extensive expertise in corporate governance, regulatory compliance, legal advisory services, litigation, enterprise risk management, strategic planning, ethics, mediation and stakeholder management. Throughout her distinguished career, she has provided strategic legal and governance advice to government departments, public entities, boards of directors and private sector organisations, supporting sound decision-making, institutional integrity and sustainable organisational performance.

She has built an impressive portfolio of board leadership and governance experience across several public entities and private organisations. She currently serves as a Board Member of the Amatola Water Board, where she chairs the Social and Ethics Committee and serves on the Human Capital and Remuneration Committee. She is also a Board Member of the Automotive Industry Development Centre Eastern Cape (AIDC-EC), contributing to the Audit, Risk and Compliance Committee as well as the Human Capital and Remuneration Committee. In addition, she serves as Chairperson of Modern Business Holdings (Pty) Ltd, where she has strengthened corporate governance, implemented strategic reforms and enhanced organisational sustainability.

Her previous governance appointments include serving as a Board Member of the South African Post Office, where she chaired the Stamp and Philatelic Committee and served on the Audit and Risk Committee as well as the Human Capital and Remuneration Committee. She also served as a Board Member of the Eastern Cape Rural Development Agency (ECRDA) and as a member of the Eastern Cape Liquor Board Panel of Appeals. Her contribution to public sector governance extends to appointments on the Ministerial Advisory Committee on Annexed Court Mediation within the Department of Justice and Constitutional Development and the Council of the South African Judicial Education Institute (SAJEI), where she contributed to judicial education, mediation reform and legislative development.

As the Founder and Director of NP Ngonyama & Associates, she provides specialised legal services in civil litigation, corporate and administrative law, conveyancing and the administration of deceased estates. Her legal practice is recognised for delivering practical, ethical and client-focused legal solutions while maintaining the highest standards of professional integrity.

Beyond her professional career, Ms Ngonyama serves as the Regent Senior Traditional Leader of the Cacadu Traditional Authority, where she has championed initiatives promoting education, rural development, women's empowerment, youth development, food security and social cohesion. Her leadership reflects a unique ability to bridge constitutional governance with traditional leadership, fostering inclusive and sustainable community development.

Her academic and professional qualifications include specialised training in Board Governance, Directorship, Mediation and Legal Practice from leading South African institutions, including the University of Johannesburg, the University of Pretoria, the Institute of Directors South Africa (IoDSA) and the South African Judicial Education Institute. Her contribution to the legal profession and public leadership has been recognised through numerous accolades, including the National Black Lawyers Association Stalwart Member Award.

Ms Ngonyama is widely respected for her strategic insight, sound judgement, ethical leadership and unwavering commitment to good governance. She brings to any board a wealth of expertise in governance, legal and regulatory compliance, risk oversight, strategy, ethics and stakeholder engagement.

PERSONAL BIO NOLHO VITSHA (LHOZA WAMAMFENE)

MC | RADIO PRESENTER | LIFE COACH | SPEAKER | CORPORATE EVENTS
HOST | BOXING SOUTH AFRICA RING ANNOUNCER | BROADCASTER |
NEWS READER | MEDIA PERSONALITY | VOICE-OVER ARTIST

Nolho Vitsha, also known as Lhoza WamaMfene, is a seasoned broadcaster, Programme Director, 2025/2026 Boxing South Africa Licensed Ring Announcer, Corporate Events Host, MC, Life Coach, Speaker, Panel Moderator and Voice-over Artist. She has close to a decade of experience in the media industry and is a well-rounded entrepreneur and the Founder and Managing Director of Jam-Base Communications.

Nolho brings strong experience in programme direction, broadcasting, event hosting and live-event facilitation. She previously served as the host of a prime-time morning show on Keith Ngesi Radio, a role she held until April 2025. Her experience in radio has strengthened her ability to manage live programming, engage diverse audiences, work with guests and contributors, and maintain a confident, professional presence in fast-paced media environments.

As a Boxing South Africa Ring Announcer for the 2025/2026 financial year, she brings energy, professionalism and commanding stage presence to the boxing environment. Her work across broadcasting, programme direction, corporate events and live platforms positions her as a versatile media and events professional.

In August 2026, Nolho served as a Panel Moderator for the Agriculture and Food Security Panel at the Pan-African Transformational Leadership Summit, held from 6–8 August 2026 at ELICC. The role further reflects her ability to facilitate high-level conversations, guide panellists and engage audiences around important development-focused issues.

Her strong command of IsiXhosa and English sets her apart from her peers and allows her to be relatable to a wide range of audiences. She is passionate about personal development and sharing information that promotes the development of women, youth, children and families.
